Broward County Commission Libraries Division Presents
Broward County Mayor's Cultural Diversity and History Exhibit Celebrating Chinese Culture and the Year of the Rooster at Northwest Regional Library

BROWARD COUNTY, FL – Throughout May, the Broward County Mayor's Cultural Diversity and History Exhibit features Chinese Culture and the Year of the Rooster at Northwest Regional Library, 3151 W. Sample Road, Coral Springs.

The exhibit features a wide variety of Chinese art, including a clay tea service, a Chinese calligraphy set and a number of carved curios, as well as framed prints and paintings that celebrate the Year of the Rooster.

The Coral Springs Chinese Culture Association, at the request of Broward County Mayor Kristin D. Jacobs, coordinated the exhibit. Items used for the display are on loan from the Atlantic Institute of Oriental Medicine and the Coral Springs Chinese Culture Association.

The Coral Springs Chinese Culture Association (CSCCA) is a non-profit organization that was founded more than 18 years ago. Its primary mission is to promote Chinese culture and to help individuals of any ethnicity learn, experience, and understand Chinese heritage.

"Featuring these displays at Broward County libraries will mean that more people will get to see them. This is good for our residents and the cultural organizations who work so very hard to put these exhibits together," said Mayor Jacobs. "It's a true community effort."
