

Date: March 14, 2006

Contact: Alicia Antone, 954-625-2873, aantone@browardlibrary.org

Broward County Commission Libraries Division Announces
VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR THE 2006 ANNUAL PAN AFRICAN BOOKFEST AND CULTURAL CONFERENCE APRIL 12-22, 2006

Who: The Broward County Libraries Division is looking for outstanding individuals to volunteer for the 2006 Pan African Bookfest and Cultural Conference (PABF).

What: The PABF will bring together national and international authors and readers to share their literary and culture experiences. Positions available for day, evening and weekend hours include: authors' escort, stage coordinator, clean-up member, information specialist, artists' assistant and host and hostess.

Volunteers will receive complimentary refreshments, and have an opportunity to meet renowned authors and artists. They will also be a part of activities enjoyed by other event-goers such as art exhibitions, book signing and sales, on-site bookmaking for children, African storytelling, ethnic food, oral history, panel presentations and more. Students who participate may qualify to receive community services hours for their contributions.

When & Where: April 12-22, 2006
African-American Research Library and Cultural Center &
Reverend Samuel Delevoe Park
2520-2650 Sistrunk Blvd., Fort Lauderdale 33311

Deadline to sign up is April 8. For more information, contact Alicia Antone at 954-625-2873, or Outreach Services at 954-357-7348.

Founded in 1974, the award winning Broward County Libraries Division provides essential quality of life community service as well as outstanding customer service throughout Broward County. The library consists of a Main Library in Downtown Fort Lauderdale and 37 branches with more than three million items for public use. Broward County Library is the ninth largest library system in the United States serving ten million customers annually.

#