Broward County Commission Libraries Division Announces
Prime Time Needs Seniors to Read to Children

BROWARD COUNTY, FL – Broward County Library’s award-winning Prime Time Program is seeking senior volunteers who want to read stories to young children, ages 3 to 5, at day-care centers in Broward County.

The required training program includes a free half-day workshop on how to present an effective story program for preschool-age children, and is followed by a ten-week site assignment at a day-care center in the volunteer’s neighborhood.

The training workshops will be held in mid-May. For more information, leave your name and phone number at 954-357-7301, to receive a return call with complete program details.

Prime Time II is made possible by a grant from the A.D. Henderson Foundation, through the Broward Public Library Foundation.

Founded in 1974, the award winning Broward County Libraries Division provides essential quality of life community service as well as outstanding customer service throughout Broward County. The library consists of a Main Library in Downtown Fort Lauderdale and 37 branches with more than three million items for public use. Broward

County Library is the ninth largest library system in the United States serving nine-and-a-half million customers annually.
