

Moonlight Tales

Storytelling Under the Stars

Saturday, April 29 • 7 to 9:30 p.m. • Broward County Main Library
100 S. Andrews Avenue • Fort Lauderdale

MOMS! DADS! GRANDPARENTS! KIDS! GRAB A BLANKET! BRING A FRIEND!

Come to the Main Library for an enchanting evening with four of the nation's premier storytellers, who'll bring tales from the four corners of the globe. Don't miss this fabulous FREE outdoor event featuring live music and the best stories under the stars.

Bobby Norfolk, an internationally known story performer and three-time Emmy Award winner, is one of the most dynamic storytellers in the country today! His popularity stems from stories rich in creativity, lively sound effects, high energy and vibrant characters.

Kuniko Yamamoto combines charming Japanese folktales with traditional musical instruments and origami to create a unique storytelling experience. A favorite performer at Disney Epcot Center and The Kennedy Center, Kuniko's marvelous presentations have universal appeal.

No matter the age of the listener, Sherry Norfolk's telling is vivid and enticing, compelling listeners to look through the kaleidoscope of story into the landscape of imagination. A professional storyteller since 1981, Sherry specializes in folktales from around the world.

Remarkable performances of traditional stories interwoven with personal narrative have earned Laura Simms worldwide recognition since 1968. Based in New York City, Laura has created a performance style that bridges ancient oral tradition and performance art. She will be accompanied by bansuri (Indian bamboo flute) virtuoso Steve Gorn.

Emcee: Caren S. Neile, Ph. D., Director, South Florida Storytelling Project at FAU.
Light refreshments will be available for purchase.
